#24

Wait-Recall: While heeling the handler stops and gives the dog a command to either sit, down or stand. The handler then tells the dog to "wait" and the handler leaves the dog and goes 10-20 feet in front of the dog. Facing the dog the handler then gives a "recall" command. The dog must return to the handler, the exercise is finished. After a brief moment the team continues forward in a heel position to the next exercise.

Weaving

#34

Cloverleaf Weaving: Barrel race pattern
The team starts to the left of the first cone and circles around the cone and proceeds to the next cone and goes around it, the team proceeds to the farthest cone, goes around it and continues in heel position to the finish. The dog begins and ends the exercise in the sit position.

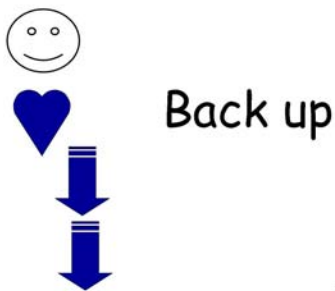

#35

#35

Leave It: While heeling the team passes a toy or food item on the floor. The dog is expected to ignore the item and not hesitate while heeling past the item. The item must be food or a toy.

#36

Back Up: The team halts and the handler faces the dog and walks into him asking for the "back up". The dog should back up a minimum of three steps. The handler then positions themselves beside the dog and prepares to proceed. The dog may start the back up from a sit or stand position.

#38

#38

Catch Up: Sit, wait and return to heel. While team is moving forward in heel position the handler ask the dog to sit and wait and the handler continues walking forward for 2-3 feet, and then asks the dog to return to heel position without facing the dog. The handler may pat their leg, or look over their shoulder while calling the dog to heel. Exercise should be done in a smooth and flowing manner.

#39

Stand
Wait
Recall

#39

Stand Wait with Recall: While heeling the handler stops and gives the dog a command to stand. The handler then tells the dog to "wait" and the handler leaves the dog and goes 3-6 feet in front of the dog. Facing the dog the handler then gives a "recall" command. The dog must return directly to the handler, without wandering, the dog must sit in front of the handler, the handler may reward the dog as soon as the dog sits in front of the handler. After a brief moment the team continues forward in a heel position to the next exercise.

#40

Stand
Stay

#40

Stand Stay: While heeling the handler stops and gives the dog a command to stand. The handler commands the dog to "stay" and the handler leaves the dog and goes 3-6 feet in front of the dog. After a count of 3 the handler walks back to the dogs left side and remains in an upright position for a count of three. The handler may then reward the dog. The team then continues forward in a heel position to the next exercise.
